रिश्ते

रिश्ते बनते हैं, बिगड़ते हैं कभी टूट भी जाते हैं रिश्ते
वर्षों लगते हैं इन्हें बनाने में, पल में टूट जाते हैं रिश्ते
क्या होते हैं ये रिश्ते क्यों हम बनाते हैं रिश्ते
जीवन में खुशी-आनन्द वे अपनापन देते हैं रिश्ते
स्वार्था बन जाते हैं जब हम, तब टूटते हैं ये रिश्ते
कभी हमारा अहम जब आ जाता है आगे तब टूटे जाते हैं रिश्ते
क्या हमारा अहम इतना महत्वपूर्ण कि हम तोड़ देते हैं ऐसे रिश्ते
जीवन में जरूरी है खुशी और आनन्द तभी हम संजोय रखते हैं ये रिश्ते
समाज में सुख के आधार हैं रिश्ते जीवन के आधार हैं रिश्ते
जीवन में सुख-दुख में अहम हो जाते हैं रिश्ते
प्यार सद्भावना अपना कर संवेदनशील बनकर सदैव संजोय रखें रिश्ते

Community Champion

Charu Sood, a cherished daughter, devoted wife caring mother, dedicated social worker and esteemed Elmbridge Borough Deputy Mayor, left for her heavenly abode on 7th August, 2024. Charu was known for her integrity, transparency and fierce advocacy for her constituents. Charu born and raised in Chandigarh, India. She was daughter of Sh. Shashi Bhushan Sud, Patron Sood Sabha Chandigarh.

A Weybridge councillor who served her community for over six years sadly died on the morning of 7th August. Her friends and colleagues have said they are "devastated" at her loss and describe her as "utterly devoted" to helping others.

Charu was first elected as a Conservative member to Elmbridge Borough Council in 2018, and again in 2022, in the ward of St. George's Hill in Weybridge (UK). Her passion for the environment was translated into community action, enrolling more than 50 businesses to sign up to help to reduce single use plastics.

Described as a "great community champion", Charu helped set up Weybridge in Bloom which helped regenerate the Monument Hill landscape. During the pandemic, Charu started a sewing group which donated more than 200 scrubs and raised £4,000 through the sale of face coverings for a local Domestic Abuse charity. She also ran litter picks and delivered for the foodbank and Meals on Wheels. She also persuaded Mercedes Benz to support efforts to clean up the River Wey near their HQ. She served on the Planning and Licensing committees, the Climate Advisory Board, and was Shadow Cabinet Member for Environment and Deputy Mayor.

Her fellow councillors described "Charu was the best of us - and we couldn't have asked for a better friend or colleague." There wasn't a moment, person, or issue she didn't approach with total kindness and selflessness.

Charu was Deputy Mayor of Elmbridge for the 2022-23 Municipal Year. She was also appointed as Deputy Mayor for the 2023-24 Municipal Year but then stepped down mid-year for health reasons. Charu had been bravely battling with cancer for a few years, but remained positive throughout and continued to think of others.

Charu will be missed by her husband, her daughters Tvishaa, Ashvita and Tasshvi as well as her extended family and the community she worked for. Charu brought laurels to the Sood Biradari and served as a beacon of inspiration for young women. Her life was a testament to the power of compassion and unwavering focus, showing that any dream can be achieved. Her loss is profound and is deeply felt by all.
